Walk Warm-Up: In general, every horse and rider needs time to prepare for the first working set. Take approximately 10 minutes to walk on a loose rein (an older, stiffer horse may work better with 20 minutes of walking). Begin by focusing on your horse and your ride. Forget about what you have to do when you get home, what went wrong that day, etc.

Dressage 101: Lesson Plan - Dressage Today

Excellent! I am using this book in conjunction with 101 Dressage & 101 Showjumping to create interesting arena work for me and my horse. We both get plenty of practice by combining the exercises from each book into one session. I don't find myself aimlessly riding around the arena now wondering what to do next.
