A good guitar solo properly fits a song, stays in key, has decent execution, and has proper preparation, but doesn't grab your attention; it's just there. A great guitar solo fits a song perfectly, stays in key or implements chromatics tastefully, is properly planned and executed nicely, plus it grabs the listener's attention, whether through innovation, technical prowess, or smoothness.

Also make it easy for yourself to practice. Buy a guitar stand and keep your guitar out on the stand so it is accessible to you at all times. Keep the guitar on the stand in a room you are in the most. This way you will be much more likely to grab it and practice when you have that free ten minute pocket of time. Don't keep your guitar
