How Tom Beat Captain Najork

Tom lived with his maiden aunt Miss Fidget Wonkham-Strong. She wore an iron hat, and thought Tom played too much, but Tom was only fooling around. She called in Captain Najork, and his hired sportsmen to teach Tom a lesson, but it was Tom who turned the tables on his Aunt, and the Captain. flag Like · see review

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: How Tom Beat Captain Najork ...

Tom is a boy who lives with his stern Aunt Fidget Wonkham Strong (all the names are hilarious and fitting-like Dickens) who looks down on his ridiculously childish habit of playing! Tom is challenged to a playing-duel with his aunts fearsome comrade, Captain Najork.The best line in this book is Aunt Strong's dinnertime command to,"eat your greasy bloaders!"
