Sour Honey & Soul Food By Billy Chapata

Sour honey is produced by sting-less bees in a small, desolate area in the Brazilian jungle. Scientists believe that the honey from this region is so pure because it was never tampered with for thousands of years, partially because the sting-less bees do not mass produce large quantities, unlike honeybees.

There is no type of honey called sour honey. There is honey known as sourwood honey, made from the nectar of the sourwood tree blossom, and that honey is sweet not sour. But the articles and videos are not talking about sourwood honey. And I do not think that they are talking about fermented honey either.
