Thabo Mbeki The Dream Deferred

Thabo Mbeki: The Dream Deferred. by. Mark Gevisser. 4.10 · Rating details · 178 ratings · 22 reviews. This title is a story about home and exile. It is a story, too, of political intrigue; of a revolutionary movement struggling first to defeat and then to seduce a powerful and callous enemy, of the battle between unity and discord, and the dogged rise to power of a quiet, clever, diligent but unpopular man who seemed to take little joy in power but have much need for it.

Thabo Mbeki: The Dream Deferred by Mark Gevisser

The book succeeds in evoking the mystery and tragedy of Thabo Mbeki, South Africa's brilliant yet failed President. Mbeki was a product of the ANC-in-exile. Groomed by party elders to be a leader of post-apartheid South Africa, Mbeki followed Mandela into the Presidency in 1999, only to be forced from office in 2007/2008 after a humiliating rejection by the ANC.
